Prohibition Director Sam Rutter Threatens Abatement Suits

Pretty Sonoma Valley Girl Is Wanted for Egg Day Queen

SONOMA VALLEY RESORTS RAIDED BY DRY SQUAD

Arrested Several Sonoma Valley Resort Proprietors Tuesday. Searched Guest Rooms.

Two machine loads of federal prohibition agents led by Agent Shurtleff, descended upon Sonoma Valley Tuesday and staged raids which prohibition chief Rutter says may mean abatement proceedings, or the closing up of some of the resorts.

Among those arrested here were the Rossi's, proprietors of the pioneer El Verano resort which had recently been raided by Deputy Sheriff Ryan and other local officers; Sal Carlo and E. E. Luciani of the Lark at Agua Caliente; Paul Vannucchi of Paul's resort, El Verano; Louis Parente, Wm. Kirby, E. A. Vasquez, and Elmer Owens of El Verano. All the Sonoma Valley resorts raided are owned by the proprietors under arrest for violation of the Volstead act and represent big investments.

At the time of the raid Parente was not on the place when the prohibitionists visited his place, but in San Francisco arranging for the return of liquor recently ordered restored to him by the United States Attorney. The agent who raided him here, Shurtleff, was implicated with Wheeler in the alleged disappearance of Parente's liquor held in storage by the government. Wheeler was "dropped" from the service as a result of the scandal and Shurtleff also was slated to go. Parente believes the raid Tuesday was staged as a "come back" on him. The agents forced Mrs. Parente to open the rooms of guests at the Tavern which were searched for evidence.

POPULAR YOUNG MAN CLAIMS FAIR BRIDE

Ray Cooper Weds Miss Laura Aroteau, Graduate Nurse, at Quiet Ceremony Last Saturday.

Ray Cooper, son of a pioneer family and at present a salesman for the Standard Oil Company at Benecia, was married in Napa last Saturday evening to Miss Laura Aroteau, a graduate nurse of that city. The marriage service was read by Rev. W. P. Rankin.

The bride is a graduate of a well known New York hospital and also did postgraduate work at the San Francisco Hospital. She is an Eastern girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Aroteau, of Berlin, New Hampshire.

Mr. Cooper has many friends in Sonoma Valley who will extend hearty congratulations and best wishes to him and his bride. They will be at home to their friends in Benecia after August 15th.

A. M. Johnson has filed his report of foreclosure sale of property in the suit of Mary E. P. A. Seymour against W. C. Horne, et al. The plaintiff bid in the property for $9397.76, the full amount of judgment and costs. The property is in Glen Ellen township, being a portion of the Rancho Agua Caliente.

New Hotel Project Is to Be Outlined

Harry Speas and Attorney Dudley Sales to Address Business Men's Association Wednesday.

A special meeting at which Harry Speas, president of Mission Inn, Inc., the new $400,000 hotel project for Sonoma Valley will speak has been called by the Sonoma Business Men's Association for Wednesday night. Attorney Sales, special counsel for the hotel company, will also address the meeting, as will also Art Hickman, identified in a musical way with all the big hotels of the country. These gentlemen will point out the importance of the Mission Inn as an aid to entertaining tourists in California and acquainting them with the great natural attractions of this section, in such close proximity to San Francisco and other bay cities.

Sonoma county has already evinced pronounced interest in the development of the Mission Inn and its merger with Boyes Hot Springs Hotel. It is pointed out that in addition to its financial value to the community, the social life which would center about the golf links and tourist hotel of the type of the Mission Inn would add great prestige to this locality and create an opportunity now not available to residents of our Valley and its suburbs.

CLASSY VAUDEVILLE FOR BENEFIT FRIDAY

St. Francis Annual Entertainment and Dance July 27th at Boyes to Attract Big Crowd.

The annual vaudeville show and dance for the benefit this year of the new church of St. Francis, will be an event of Friday night next at Boyes Springs Theatre. The program has been arranged under the direction of the Order of Alhambra of San Francisco which will send the following talent for the classy bill:

McCreedy and Leary, the entertaining hatters.

Michael Lawley, the comedian from Cork.

Edward Burke, physical culturist and his Columbia Park boys juvenile artists.

Dancing to the famous Hickman orchestra will conclude the evening's entertainment.

WILL CUMMINGS IS OPERATED UPON

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Will Cummings of Eureka will be sorry to hear of the serious operation undergone by the well known railroad official for stomach trouble. His brother-in-law, Theodore Kiser, reports him to be resting easy and indications for his recovery are good. Mr. Cummings, a brother of former Mayor Cummings of Sonoma, is one of the most popular officials of the Northwestern Pacific.

The Exposition of Rome Confers Honors Upon Sonoma Creamery.

At the Exposition of Progress in Rome, Italy, products of the Sonoma Mission Creamery were recently displayed and were awarded special honors. Messrs Vella and Iacona, proprietors of the creamery, are in receipt of the beautiful awards, consisting of a handsomely engraved diploma, bearing the signatures of men prominent in the City of Rome, including the mayor of that city and the consul of the United States, H. Earle Russell. Another signature of note is that of Signor Moroni, minister of foreign affairs.

In addition to the diploma, embellished with the ancient seal of the city and figures illustrative of Progress, Agriculture and the Industrial Arts, the Sonoma Creamery received a beautiful gold medal bearing a likeness of King Victor Emanuel III. The Cross of Honor for industrial merit was also conferred upon the California manufacturers.

Messrs. Vella and Iacona are right fully proud of the recognition accorded their industry abroad and Sonoma Valley also can well be proud of the honors accorded Sonoma products.

BELOVED SISTER CALLED BY DEATH

Sister Antonia of Ursuline College at Santa Rosa Passed Away Friday. Brother Resided Here.

Sister Antonia of Santa Rosa, who prior to assuming the veil was Miss Mamie Cleary, sister of E. M. Cleary, the Sonoma electrician, died in San Francisco on Friday of last week following an operation. She was one of the most loved and talented sisters at the Dominican convent. Of her devout life and good work the Santa Rosa papers said:

"It was 32 years ago that Sister Antonia bid adieu to the world and gave her life to religion and service when she took the veil of an Ursuline nun. And those 32 years were filled with untiring devotion in everything she undertook.

The deceased was a woman of brilliant attainments. Not only did she attain distinction as a scholar, but she was a brilliant musician. She possessed a particularly rich voice of fine tonal quality and in addition she was an organist and musical director of exceptional ability.

"But not only in her work as an educator and member of Ursuline college faculty was the influence of Sister Antonia felt in an exceptional way. She always took a great part in all parochial affairs of St. Rose parish, particularly in efforts in which the children of the parish were concerned. It might be said truthfully that during her 32 years of active life Sister Antonia trained thousands of boys and girls to receive the sacraments of the church. For many years she was superintendent of St. Rose Sunday school and she lent her inspiration to those who assisted her as teachers in the school.

"Sister Antonia was born in St. Mary's hospital and she died in the place where as a tiny babe she was ushered into life. Her girlhood days were spent in Oakland. As a girl she attended Ursuline College in Santa Rosa and graduated there. Later on she returned to the familiar scenes of childhood and entered religion as a member of the Ursuline community.

Mrs. Mary Valente Allen of San Francisco has been spending a week's vacation at the home of her mother. Mrs. Allen has a popular millinery shop on Fillmore street.

TOY MANUFACTURERS VIEW SONOMA SITES

Survey of Industrial Locations for Proposed Plant Made By Men From Atascadero.

Messrs. Dooley and Snyder of the Dooley-Doll and Toy factory which plans to move its manufacturing plant from Atascadero in Southern California to Sonoma, have been viewing industrial sites along the railroad right of way the past week. From three to five acres would be required for the factory and several tracts, including the Emparan and Sorini properties have been looked at. It has been hoped that a site would be given the concern to locate here but so far no one has come forward with an offer.

Considerable financial encouragement has been given the toy people, however, by local capitalists although many more pledges for stock are required. As soon as secured, the first unit of the plant will be moved here, the southern California plant being kept intact to turn out orders already in for 1923 holiday goods.

The entire output of the Dooley factory on torchiers, or lamp stands, has been bought up by Sloan's, the furniture house of San Francisco, and the contract was displayed to investors here this week by Mr. Dooley. This is just one line manufactured by the large plant which plans to enter the Sonoma field and give the community a payroll and a factory which has long been recognized as essential to Sonoma's progress. If you are interested in getting the factory here, sign the accompanying coupon today and mail it to E. T. Dooley, Sonoma, Calif.:

SUDDEN DEATH OF VINEBURG FARMER

John Mallon Succumbs to An Attack of Heart Failure at His Home Saturday Morning.

John Mallon, prominent farmer of the Vineburg section, died suddenly at his home there Saturday morning of heart failure.

Mallon had been apparently in the best of health and the day before the fatal heart attack had been picking apples in his orchard.

About midnight Friday night, after he had retired, his wife noticed that he was breathing heavily and at once summoned help. Despite the best efforts to save him, Mallon sunk rapidly and passed away after receiving the last rites of the Catholic church, of which he was a communicant.

The funeral took place here Monday and was attended by many friends of the late orchardist, who was a genial man and highly esteemed by all who knew him.

His widow, to whom he was married just four months ago, has the sympathy of the community in her sad loss. She has a mother and other relatives in New York.

Deceased was 47 years of age and a native of Ireland.

A coroner's inquest was held on Sunday and established chronic heart trouble as the cause of the sudden death.

Mr. and Mrs. Bledsoe of the Sonoma Garage have purchased the Estes cottage on the west side of Broadway.

MANY CITIES WILL PARTICIPATE IN THE CONTEST FOR QUEEN

Egg Day Queen for Petaluma to be Decided by Photos from Pacific Coast Cities.

A pretty Sonoma Valley girl is wanted to be Egg Day queen at Petaluma. The contest will include girls from many cities on the Pacific Coast but the Index-Tribune believes that a Valley of the Moon beauty will win. All you have to do is to send your photograph to be judged. There is no cost to enter the contest. There is no voting or money for votes. Read what friend Kerrigan, secretary of the Petaluma Chamber of Commerce, tells us about it and then bring or send in the photo.

The Index-Tribune will send in the pictures for you if you wish to enter the contest.

Saturday, August 18, 1923, will be Egg Day, held in conjunction with the Sonoma County Fair. The committee is desirous of selecting a queen from some city on the Pacific Coast that has made poultry one of its successful industries and would be interested in calling attention to the fact.

To stimulate interest, to give your community the opportunity to obtain coastwide, yes, even national recognition, and at the same time help the poultry industry in general, the fair committee invites your city to enter its most attractive girls in the contest for queen of Egg Day in Petaluma.

We are confining the contest to Pacific Coast cities. Last year we gave all America the opportunity to enter. The girl winner was from Tennessee.

Egg Day has become almost a national institution and attracts attention from different parts of the entire world, so anything done, or girl selected, would receive universal attention.

The plan in short, for the Egg Day queen contest, is for your community to enter one, two or three girls, depending on your own judgment, but not more than three.

Then send in two photos of each girl entered, one three-quarters and the other full length. The judges will select what is in their judgment the most attractive girl; she will be made "queen of Egg Day." This picture contest facilitates the work and does away with voting.

After the girl is selected, the Egg Day committee will then send the girl and her chaperone, transportation from their home to Petaluma, and return, and pay for her queenly garments. The chaperone can be selected from the other girls in the city entered in the contest of the winner desires; however, that is optional with the girl selected and your committee.

The next prettiest girl in the contest will be selected as the maid of honor; the attendants to be Petaluma girls, who will act as hostesses to the queen during her stay here.

Every photo sent in will be in turn given to the newspapers for publication, stating where the girl is entered (Continued on Page Five)

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

George Cornelius of San Francisco was a Sunday visitor to El Verano.

Mrs. Parramore of Boyes Springs was a week end visitor to Oakland.

Miss Elva Moriarity of Alameda is spending her vacation the guest of Miss Anne Dowdall.

Mrs. W. Wohnor and son of San Francisco are spending the week at the home of L. Larbre and family.

Archie Gale motored over from Winters Sunday and visited his family who are guests at the N. Dowdall ranch.

Theodore Pohn, of San Francisco, is spending the week as the guest of his brothers on their dairy ranch in the western foothills.

Charles Weaver and Milton Peterson were at Dillon Beach over the week end, taking the sea air and trying their luck at the fishing game.

Hugh O'Hara and family of San Francisco are vacationing at Cabano's Resort, Boyes Springs. Mr. O'Hara is a foreman at the Union Iron Works, in the boiler making department.

Bill Caufield, Petaluma capitalist, was looking over business interests in Sonoma Valley last Saturday. Mr. Caufield is thinking of taking over some more Sonoma Valley land for pasturage.

Sonoma Valley friends of the well known N. W. P. rail official, William Cummings, formerly agent for the company at Schellville, will be sorry to learn that he underwent an operation at San Francisco one day last week.

A large crowd of poultry raisers assembled at the Bolin ranch west of El Verano last Friday where an interesting demonstration and lecture on culling of flocks were held by Mr. Buster of the Sonoma County Farm Bureau.

The base ball game Sunday at Boyes between Boyes Springs and the San Francisco Tailors resulted in an inglorious defeat for the team from the metropolis, the score being 24 to 0 in favor of Boyes Springs. Only seven innings were played. A large crowd was in attendance.

A carload of truck horses, the property of H. Cowan, famous trainer of wild steeds and steers, which have been in Los Angeles taking part in a movie for a large southern film firm arrived and were unloaded at the S. P. yards in El Verano last Saturday. They were in charge of Mike Slattery.

El Verano Villa's celebration of the great French holiday, the fall of the Bastille, last Saturday evening, witnessed one of the largest crowds of party loving people ever seen at this resort. Dancing was enjoyed on the fine floor which has been pronounced by dancing celebrities as the best ever. Fine music was featured and the French and American national songs were sang.

John Larson, well known as the chief bass hunter in Sonoma Valley, after a long lay-off from the great sport of Isaac Walton, slipped out of the burg one day last week and hied himself to Napa Creek, and returned with one eight pound and one three pound striped bass. Mr. Larson kindly remembered the writer with a fish and hearty thanks are extended to the celebrated fisherman.

There was a hot time in the old town Tuesday when a large grass fire of unknown origin raged in Northern El Verano. At the same time a squad of prohibition officers out of Rutter's headquarters in San Francisco, hit the old burg, raiding Al Rossi's cafe, Parente's and Paul's at Verano. Sal Carlo's at Agua Caliente was also raided. Evidence was procured and the owners placed under arrest.

Forty acres of the Millerick Ranch land at Schellville, on the marshes, have been leased to Mr. Helman, San Francisco millionaire, and other associates of the capitalist, who will convert these acres into a duck hunting preserve. Duck ponds will be laid out and this promises to be one of the greatest hunting places in the state when completed. A caretaker is already on the grounds in the interests of the new gun club and several homes, and a club house will be built. During the duck hunting season many sportsmen will journey to Schellville to enjoy the fine sport promised on these preserves.

Billy Brandon, champion flyweight of China, who became famous on that memorable night some years ago in San Francisco when he defeated the Chinaman boxer, Ah Wing, and who has been resting on his laurels since, has just returned from a sea voyage to Canada. The little Italian looks good and is as hard as a rock. During his short stay here he will be the guest of his old friend, Louis Parente. Billy called on the writer Sunday morning, who with other natives were glad to see him. Our little friend has retired from the ring and still holds the belt as champion of China. He contemplates another sea voyage on his return to San Francisco.

John Powers of Yolo, advance agent for the great new tourist hotel to be erected on the former Bigelow ranch, now the Valley of the Moon Golf and Country Club, was recently in El Verano. A large amount of money has already been raised and Mr. Power will ask Sonoma Valley business men and boosters to help put over this great project for Sonoma Valley. Powers is an old Yolo boy and has met many friends from the Sacramento Valley town who were glad to see him after many years. He will reside here for the present and will probably locate in the Valley of the Moon. The new hotel, when completed, will be one of the finest of its kind in the state.

Milton Peterson and Charles Weaver of El Verano were visitors to Dillon Beach Sunday. The pleasure seekers were eye witnesses to the drowning of Justin O'Brien a Mare Island machinist, who died in an attempt to save the life of Miss Aileen Steere, daughter of C. A. Steere, superintendent of the Napa county state hospital, who was being swept to sea by an ebb tide. The unfortunate young lady was rescued by Andy Sheulard of Vallejo, who swam to her side as O'Brien, exhausted by his efforts, let go and sank into the sea. A large crowd of visitors at the beach were panic stricken and great excitement prevailed for some time. O'Brien's sweetheart who witnessed the drowning, is said to be in danger of losing her mind.

A grand party was given Mr. and Mrs. T. Soberanes of Petaluma, newlyweds, by Harry Rogers, at the home of Miss N. O'Brien in the western foothills. After congratulations were extended and ample justice done a delicious wedding supper, music and dancing was enjoyed by those present, who were Mr. and Mrs. Studert and daughter of Petaluma, the bride's family; T. Caufield and wife.

To know how good a cigarette really can be made you must try a—

W. Caufield, H. How, T. Arfsten, been determined. The regular 7:32 Miss Pettit, Miss Felder, Joe Felder, a m. passenger train to El Verano Leo Felder, Leslie Martin of Vallejo, was taken around the "y" at Santa Miss Lane of Montana and Mr. Rosa and ran as a special over the Goldsby of Kentucky. All report a N W. P. via Petaluma to Schellville wonderful time. Tom Caufield of Junction, making the run from there Petaluma made an address at the conclusion of the party, warmly congratulating the newlyweds. Other noted guests present were Miss Pansy Parmeter of Shasta county, who is the champion lady bronco rider of that county, and Ruth Hinckley of Petaluma, who is the champion lady roper and steer rider of Northern California.

The extra night freight train due at El Verano at 8 p. m., running over the S. P. lines from Roseville to Santa Rosa, was wrecked near Molita late Saturday morning. Two empty refrigerator cars jumped the rails tearing up the track for some distance and one of the cars turned completely over. The wrecking crew arrived at noon Saturday and the cars were put back on the track and the right of way repaired. The train was made up of 40 refrigerator cars. The cause of the accident has not yet

THE SMILING BUTCHER OF BOYES SPRINGS

Out at the new Boyes meat market of Maffei Brothers is a butcher with the best record of smileage of anyone in Sonoma Valley. Tony Cereghino is the boy behind the block and while he has no speedometer on his smileage, he is known from Glen Ellen to McGill's as the original pleasant fellow.

Mr. Cereghino is a blonde "wop" and all the Irish claim him, too. He is an old timer in the Valley of the Moon and used to peddle meat up in the village of Glen Ellen long before Jack London came, when Gaige was the butcher in that locality.

We hate to tell the Spring chickens up at Boyes that Tony is married, has a charming wife, two beautiful little daughters and one of Sonoma's prettiest homes.

(Editor's Note—Tony didn't pay us for this biography; we "threw it in," just like the butchers used to do.)

GEOLOGY LECTURES AT YOSEMITE MUSEUM

All visitors to Yosemite are interested in the way that nature carved such a marvelously beautiful masterpiece. Recent studies by members of the U. S. Geological Survey have proved conclusively the most important facts in the long hidden story.

The Sierra Nevada is a mountain range that has resulted from the tipping up of a huge block of the earth's crust—a block 400 miles long and 80 miles wide. The break, or fault, occurred at the eastern edge of the block; one may now stand at the summit of Mt. Lyell or Mt. Dana and look down 10,000 feet or more to Mono Lake and the desert valleys to the eastward. The westward slope of the Sierra slopes gradually, indeed, the average gradient from the crest to the San Joaquin Valley only averages two degrees.

Following the successive tiltings that raised the Sierra the main stream were forced to flow eastward. One of these trunk streams, the Merced, carved its channel to a depth of more than 2000 feet to form the slowly developing Yosemite Valley. Then came a change in climate. The snows of winter accumulated in the higher mountains, compacted into ice and sent forth glaciers into the lower country. Two of these glaciers, one from the main Merced drainage and one from the Tanaya Creek drainage met in the Yosemite, greatly widened it, and, up to their retreat some 20,000 years ago, had succeeded in deepening the Valley some 1200 feet.

The story of the action of water and ice in the formation of Yosemite Valley is told daily at 10:30 a. m. in non-technical language at the Yosemite Museum by Chief Naturalist Ansel F. Hall of the U. S. National Park Service. Here all of the features of Yosemite are actually represented on a 10 foot relief model and can be pointed out as if one were in an aeroplane flying over the region. Special lectures will be arranged at the request of ten or more persons.

LEFT MONEY TO THE SONOMA RED CROSS

August Pellissier Monday filed his final report and petition for distribution as administrator in the estate of Rosalie Veigne. The estate consists of $1531.37 and two lots (in Half Moon Bay. Eugene Veigne gets $4.77; August Pellissier $954.12; Jean Pellissier $477.06 and the Red Cross of Sonoma $95.42, while August and Jean Pellissier get the lots between them.

The Pellissiers are nephews of Mrs. Veigne, who died here last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Murphy and family are enjoying a two weeks' outing at Dillon Beach.

Mrs. M. Schweitzer, who suffered an attack of ptomaine poisoning while at her country home here, has been recuperating at Del Monte.

MUST STOP BEFORE CROSSING R. R. TRACKS

Impetus to the careful crossing campaign now being carried on by the railroads, will be given in California after August 31, when the new California motor vehicle act passed by the last legislature becomes effective. The new law provides that operators of all motor vehicles carrying passengers for hire, school busses and motor trucks carrying explosives or inflammables, must come to a complete stop before crossing the tracks of any steam railroad or of any interurban or suburban electric railway.

These provisions of the act are included in Section 135, and a penalty of a fine of not exceeding $500 or of imprisonment for not exceeding six months or both is provided for violations of the section.

Operators of the vehicles mentioned in the section must bring their machines to a stop within not less than 10 feet nor more than 50 feet from the nearest rail of the track being approached, and then look and listen carefully for approaching trains.

MRS. LAMB COMES FROM LOS ANGELES

Mrs. Louise Rufus Lamb of Los Angeles has been here, the guest of her brother, Otto Rufus, at Buena Vista, since the Centennial. She made the trip north especially to see the Mission Play. The Rufus family's one of the pioneer families of Sonoma county and received one of the original land grants from General Vallejo.

Mrs. Lamb's brother was in the Play and wore his father's, the late Major Rufus, brocade vest in the wedding scene.

THE PATH TO OUR DOOR

Sonoma has often pondered over Emerson's truism (translated) that if a community has the goods the world will find a path to its door even if it's in the wilderness.

Sonoma is not in the wilderness, as distance goes, but one would think so, considering how long the pathfinder has been in getting here. Now opportunity has found a way and Sonoma Valley cannot be bottled up much longer. The path to our door will be highway, and greatest of all, are the bridges which will link us up with the east bay communities and San Francisco.

The path across the water will not only be a marvelous engineering achievement, but will blaze a trail of progress into Sonoma, Napa and Marin counties of a magnitude impossible to imagine.

The paths of Emerson are coming our way. Over marsh, hills and dales and breaking down barriers of water opportunity is coming, determined to arrive in the Valley of the Moon.

THE FISH EXCHANGE

And now a howl has gone up because the State economy program is to affect the nice soft job of State Fish Market Director. The fish exchange was supposed to lower the price of fish. It never did. What it did do was to effect an agreement with the Association as to the price to be charged the public and the advertised price. The price of fish has always been high enough and in addition we had to pay the salary of the Commissioner. Red tape, onerous restrictions on fishing and the heckling of fishermen by officials led to a combination which has cost the public dearly.

We are of the opinion that if there were less State regulation there would be more fish and lower prices.

Gilbert Daniels, a newspaper man, was given the fish job by the Stephens administration as a political plum. It did not take Governor Richardson long to find out that Gilbert had other fish to fry so he tried him out on the Board of Control. Daniels didn't control the money any better than he did the fish, so he quit, and now the Governor thinks that what the State of California needs is more fish and less politicians, so he decided to eliminate the job.

SEBASTOPOL SAID IT

Much of the cause of complaints by many local merchants that trade belonging rightfully to this territory is going elsewhere, could be removed by the business men by a little more attention to informing the buying public of their goods and prices. The writer during the past week personally heard three different persons say they "were surprised at the quality of goods and prices quoted in one Sebastopol business house." These shoppers had been trading elsewhere because they believed the goods they wanted could not be obtained here. This point is further emphasized by the remark of one merchant who is active in acquainting the public with his goods, that "last week was the biggest in the history of the business."—Sebastopol Times.

WE WANT BETTER ROADS

While waiting for the State highway which we are to have through Sonoma Valley, the traveling public and taxpayers would certainly like to see better county roads in this vicinity. Every artery of travel is in poor condition, nor do we see any effort being made to better our county thoroughfares. While bridge building and culvert construction is commendable, we cannot afford to neglect our dirt roads entirely and get the condemnation of every motorist who travels over them. With so much former county road now maintained by the State and taxes paid aplenty, there seems little excuse for the abominable conditions of Sonoma roads.

Every traveler from other sections of California remarks on the contrast between Sonoma roads and other county roads. Our supervisor should sit up and take notice and then take action. It is action we want from our representative on the Board, and Sonoma Valley is entitled to it.

END IS APPROACHING

Few papers in this country these days defend existing prohibition conditions. Scarcely any of them would have saloons brought back, but the big majority protest against what is now taking place. The other day this page read the editorial printed here with in an exchange—and the paper is one which does not have wet inclinations, but pretty well reflects what newspapermen think nowadays. The editorial reads:

The Eighteenth Amendment is the first appendix to the Constitution of the United States to fail of its purpose. Evidence of its failure is reflected daily by the court records and newspapers the country over.

When California, and other states, ratified the amendment they were sincere in their action. They thought the Eighteenth Amendment would be enforced with the rigid stringency which has characterized the government of the United States in maintaining respect for other rules laid down for governing a peace loving people.

They have been disappointed. The law which was expected to make America dry has been trifled with, trampled upon, and even jested about by the very officials employed to enforce it.

Our futile efforts to enforce national prohibition have made us the laughing stock of a rum-soaked world.

Conditions became so deplorable that many states sought relief through the adoption of enforcement laws. California was one—the Wright Act. What has it accomplished? Little aside from drawing state, county and local authorities into a riot of lawlessness which the Federal government apparently admits its incompetency to handle. Result: Federal enforcement officers draw fat pay for sitting at headquarters sipping beverages of questionable alcoholic content—mayhap the boodle of a recent raid—jesting on prohibition that doesn't prohibit, while state police bear the brunt of trying to enforce a discredited amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Thus we have a condition little different, except that it suffers by comparison, from California's oldtime local option law. If one community has officers more proficient in law enforcement than a neighboring community, naturally the one will be less moist than the other.

Under local option communities that were dry were made so by a majority vote of the people, and each took upon himself a personal interest in seeing that it was kept dry. This personal interest seemed to change to an attitude of let Uncle Sam do it when national prohibition came.

One thing, bootlegging did not hold such alluring prospects as it does today. Liquor had to be purchased from bonded warehouses and was necessarily of staple brand, also it had to be sold at a reasonable price for there was always a licensed wet spot in a nearby township where it was to be had.

Today it is a case of mashing up a few prunes and other fruits unfit for market, adding a dash of barley, letting it sit until fermentation sets in, and selling the seepage at four bits a whiff. Result: bootlegger and undertaker share the profits.

Most any undertaking, lawful or otherwise, offering such opportunities for 100 per cent profit and no expense has its attractions for some.

There is but one way to solve the problem of prohibition—and that is not through a state enforcement act. Either the government must take a firm stand and dry the United States—which it can do—or it must repeal the laws which have so feebly struck at, and at the same time so generally and so beneficially advertised, the liquor traffic.—The Ukiah Republican Press.

The Sebastopol Apple Show is overlooking something. Why not a pageant of Adam and Eve, Anally?

VINEBURG NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bosquet and son Alfred of San Francisco were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto on Saturday evening, and on Sunday motored to the Summit hotel where they will enjoy their annual vacation in the High Sierras.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Finck, after spending a three weeks vacation in Sonoma Valley, returned to their Oakland home on Wednesday, much pleased with their visit. They were accompanied by Mrs. Louis Martin and children. When leaving Vineburg Louis Martin Jr. was at the wheel of the big car.

Mr. William Munfrey was shaking hands with old friends here last Sunday and Jim Small says, Billy looks as young as he did when they went to school together.

Messrs S. Rasori and Victor Vaccari, both prominent businessmen of San Francisco, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Figone at the John Batto residence this week.

Robert P. Hill of Eldridge was transacting business in this vicinity last Monday.

Mrs. Lestrom and son Felix, of Lark Mead, a suburb of Calistoga were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Martin on Sunday.

Miss Emily Batto was the week end guest of friends in the metropolis and returned home Tuesday morning.

Geo. Cassidy is driving a swell new Studebaker car.

Ollie Oliver says:—You can train your eyes any way to shoot, and all you can see is fruit, fruit, if you live in fruitful Vineburg.

The angel of death hovered over the Hyde tract last Saturday and bore the spirit of Mr John Mallon, one of its most esteemed and respected citizens to the Great Beyond. A few years ago Mr. Mallon left the city and started in the poultry business, built a cozy home and four months ago was married to an estimable young lady who is left to mourn the loss of one so dear. Deceased was a native of County Derry, Ireland, 46 years of age. The funeral took place on Monday last, interment in Sonoma Catholic cemetery.

DAIRYMEN AND FARMERS INVITED TO A LECTURE

H. R. Lochry, cheese specialist with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, will be in Sonoma Thursday evening, July 26th, and will give an illustrated lecture on cheese making and the care of milk to the dairymen of Sonoma Valley. The meeting will be held at the high school auditorium through the courtesy of Professor L. H. Golton and the high school trustees. The talk of Professor Lochry will be illustrated with slides showing cheese manufacturing stages and everything having a bearing on the product.

The object of the visit of the noted dairy specialist is to inform dairymen of the requirements necessary to turn out superior products and to cooperate with the manufacturer.

All dairymen, farmers and their friends are invited to the free lecture next Thursday evening.

Give your printing orders to the Index-Tribune, which is boosting constantly for Sonoma Valley and merits your patronage. Phone 83-W.

OLDEST NATIVE SON AND NATIVE DAUGHTER

John Grigsby who is the oldest Native Son in California and was born in Sonoma in 1854, will have another birthday the last of this month when he will be 78 years old. He was here for the celebration, looking hale and hearty and fully enjoyed the festivities. He makes his home with his son in Napa county. Many pictures were taken of the oldest Native Son while he was over here.

Sonoma Valley discovered its oldest Native Daughter during the recent historical fiesta. She is Mrs. Douglas Church of Schellville, mother of Mrs. Fred Schell. Mrs. Church is quite active and was able to attend the Spanish ball the opening night of the celebration.

ACCIDENTS OF THE WEEK

Julius Fochetti, Jr., while working on a repair job at his shop Friday of last week, was struck by a piece of flying steel which severed a main artery of his forearm. He lost considerable blood, but the steel was finally extracted by Dr. Thomson and the wound dressed.

Joseph Sorini, while at work at his fruit dryer, was accidentally struck by a piece of timber and his head was badly cut. Dr. Hays attended him.

Henry Chauvet suffered a broken arm this week while trying to lead a fractious horse. He was given first aid and treatment by state home surgeons at Eldridge.

T. Z. BLAKEMAN PASSED AWAY

T. Z. Blakeman, a San Francisco attorney who formerly owned a large ranch adjoining the golf links property in the western foothills, died in the metropolis this week.

When a very young man he was in the Civil war and played a prominent part as a member of one of the famous detachments of that period.

He was for many years a successful practicing attorney and member of the San Francisco Bar Association. His daughter, Mrs. Leontine McMillan, residing at the St. Francis Hotel inherits his $75,000 estate.

ART HICKMAN OPENS ENGAGEMENT AT BOYES

Art Hickman and his six piece dance orchestra, famous throughout America as the best syncopators in the United States, open a special engagement at Boyes Springs Theatre tonight.

Mr. Hickman returns to Boyes after a career of triumphs since leaving the resort where he made his early start. He has played at the leading hotels, theatres, and cafes of the country and the right to produce his music for the Victor Company has netted him a nice fortune.

Art is the same genial musician and he has evinced genuine interest in the engagement at Boyes where he will in person direct his orchestra, beginning tonight.

After his engagement here he takes his orchestra to Los Angeles where he has closed a contract with the new Biltmore Hotel for the brilliant winter season there.

FIRES THIS WEEK KEPT BOYS BUSY

Chief Cause was called out with th Boyes Springs and Valley engine last Sunday evening at 5 o'clock to battle a blaze back of the Stuermer property in Sonoma Vista. A small outhouse burned down but all surrounding property was protected.

Tuesday afternoon Sonoma Vista had another fire near the Sloane property. Chicken huoses and a pump house were slightly damaged but the chemical saved the entire district from what might have resulted very seriously. Owing to the narrow roads and their roughness in and about Sonoma Vista the engine had a hard time making a quick run to fires there.

Next month there will be a benefit for the fire department indebtedness at Boyes Springs.

The Sonoma fire engine was called to the Plaza Hotel Wednesday at 7 a. m. where a chimney fire caused some excitement.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. T. J. MacQuiddy is home from an extended visit East and is again occupying the MacQuiddy home east of town. She arrived in time to see the Mission Play and is proud of the fact that the drama was written in her house. Garnet Holme, the playwright, occupied the upper part of the residence rented by Mr. and Mrs. George Crowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurst and children have returned home after a vacation with Mrs. Hurst's mother, Mrs. Tom Monahan.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Mori have purchased the Nessi residence west of town. Mr. Nessi was up from Oakland recently and closed the deal.

H. H. Hunt of Oakland, father of the owner of the Hunt tract, expects to retire from business and come to Sonoma to reside.

A five room cottage is going up on a lot recently sold in the Hunt tract to W. E. Rogers.

DOCTORS ARE FREED IN PRESTWOOD CASE

Physicians Morris and Anderson Acquitted By Jury After 15 Minutes Deliberation.

"We, the jury, find the defendants not guilty."

With the reading of this verdict by Deputy County Clergy Chas. Byington in Judge Ross Campbell's court Thursday afternoon at 4:55, after the jury had been out 15 minutes in the trial of Dr. J. R. Morris and Dr. J. G. Anderson, both Petaluma physicians, the audience broke forth into loud applause.

Judge Campbell sprang to his feet while bailiff Robert Dickson rapped loudly for order. "Such conduct is not allowed in this room" declared the court. "If I was certain who the persons were that started the demonstration, I would fine them for contempt of court. Conduct like this is not permitted in a court of justice."

The verdict came at the end of a long day for the jury as Attorney Gil P. Hall of Petaluma and Attorney Wm. F. Cowan, of Santa Rosa, made lengthy reviews of the evidence presented in the case to show that the prosecution had failed in making out its case. Hall scored District Attorney Hoyle in commenting on that official's efforts to secure a conviction.

District Attorney Hoyle completed the closing argument and Judge Campbell occupied 45 minutes in delivering his charge to the jury.

T. Boone Miller was elected as foreman and then it was agreed to take a ballot to ascertain how the jury stood. The ballots were all marked, without comment, not guilty, and the end was at hand. The result was then brought into court and announced and the jury discharged with thanks of the court for the faithfulness in the case.

Many character witnesses testified for the two physicians.

POISON KILLS GIRL FROM STATE HOME

Edna Larson, 28 years old, who was on parole from the Sonoma State Home for Feeble Minded and who more than a week ago took poison while in a fit of despondency, died Monday morning in the hospital of the institution at Eldridge.

When it was discovered that the girl had taken the poison she was rushed to a hospital for treatment, and it was believed several days later that the effects of the poison had been stopped. She was returned to the home and suffered a relapse. Dr. Fred Butler, the medical superintendent at the home and other physicians attended her but to no avail.

Dr. Butler when questioned Monday stated that the girl's death was due to the effects of the poison which from is nature, worked slowly.

AT NEW CLUB HOUSEThe new Jack London Memorial Library building which was built by and serves as a place of assembly for the Glen Ellen Women's Improvement Club, was the scene of a most delightful dance last Saturday night.
The party was not only a social success, but netted a substantial sum for the building indebtedness.The site of the new club house overlooking the Valley made famous by the author, Jack London, is particularly beautiful by moonlight and from the balcony of the artistic club house dancers looked out over a perfect summer night.The interior of the building lends itself charmingly to the illuminations and for the dance the artistic effect was enhanced by gorgeous sprays of pink gladiolas from the London ranch. Many paintings from gifted artists, friends of the late author, also adorn the assembly hall and library.The new maple floor is one of the finest to be found anywhere and with Shower's Jazz Orchestra of six pieces dancers had a real treat.From 11 o'clock until after midnight supper was served in the banquet hall on the lower floor and it was a real old time supper such as the Glen Ellen ladies pride themselves on serving.It is planned to hold a series of these nice parties.PIONEER'S FUNERAL
IN SAN FRANCISCOThe remains of Susan Elizabeth Dougherty who died at a local sanitarium last week, were shipped to San Francisco on Saturday for interment.Deceased was the widow of the late John Dougherty, once prominent San Francisco fire department official.
She succumbed to pneumonia at the advanced age of 83 years. Her niece, Evelyn Kane, of San Francisco, was with her when the end came.

MOTORED TO RUSSIAN RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. P. Meinhardt and the Misses Ella and Leona Fox motored to Guerneville and to Russian River resorts Sunday where they enjoyed a fine outing. Swimming, boating and a good picnic lunch was part of the good time. A big crowd is at the River this year. Herling, the former restaurant man of Coney Island, has a fine grill at Guerneville.

VACATION TO VANCOUVER

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Weise, Harold Weise and Miss Davidson left Glen Ellen Sunday morning for a motor camping trip which will take them north as far as Vancouver, B.
C. They expect to get good fishing and hunting on the trip. The Shirley
Weise's mother, Mrs. Minkel of El Verano.E. J. THOMSON SELLS OUT

sold their Fetters Springs home and returned to San Francisco where for many years Thomson was a member of the police department.During his residence here he made many friends and the Valley will miss the genial "cop."

VINEYARDIST GOES EAST

Arthur Kunde, who owns the famous Wildwood Vineyards at Kenwood, left last week for a business trip to New York. Kunde has taken the entire management of the big Kunde wine and grape industry since the tragic death of his father abroad and is making a decided success of it.

CULLING POULTRY PAYS

(By W. J. OTTEN)

The culling demonstration held in El Verano July 13th brought out the largest number of people the writer has ever seen at any poultry meeting in the Valley. There were 90 people all showing intense interest in the desire to learn more of that which concerns them most, namely: How to make their poultry ranch pay better money.

M. W. Buster and myself wish to thank all those who were there for their co-operation in making this a very interesting meeting. It encourages us to go ahead and work with renewed energy for the holding of the next demonstration which will aid poultrymen to solve their every day problems of paying their feed bills and stacking up their bank accounts.

To get these results you must come again and show us by your presence that you appreciate our efforts to help you. This poultry department is created solely and simply to help others to help themselves. The executive committee is made up of experienced poultrymen, two from each district in Sonoma county. They give their time and experience in poultry raising for the benefit of those who need information, and we all need that, the entire year around. Help us make the poultry show a big success at Petaluma August 15 to 19. That is a time to get information on anything pertaining to utility White Leghorns.

The writer has never kept more than 850 layers for the past seven years. By systematic culling he eliminates all poor producing stock. In February, 1916, he bought five acres having a $2000 mortgage to start with and 500 poor laying hens. Today the ranch speaks for itself, with 12½ acres of land and a flock of 850 pedigreed layers from the best strain on this coast, 3000 egg hatchery with a net price of chicks at 20c each and orders for which could not be filled this season.

I mention this to show what can be done by anyone if culling is studied after attending a culling demonstration given by the Sonoma County Farm Bureau Poultry Department.

A man who had been running his own flock of 2000 hens for 10 years told me he went home and culled out the poor hens from one hen house and kept culls in one yard and the good hens in another yard and at the end of a month the culls were laying more eggs than the good hens. He said he culled exactly as the demonstrator had showed him. He settled it by saying all culling is humbug. He prefers to keep all the birds he has. How can anybody expect to learn how to cull hens by hearing one hour's talk on the subject?

It takes practice and study of the known methods to be able to cull hens with any certainty of success but anybody can do it by handling his hens every day he goes among them and practicing until he becomes an expert.

FORTY-NINE PER CENT OF TAXES FOR SCHOOLS

The total aggregate amount raised in Sonoma county by taxation for all purposes in the last fiscal year was $1,938,644.83. Of this amount $934,815.35 was for educational work, or a fraction less than 49 per cent of the total. These figures are from the official report issued under direction of the board of supervisors.

The various purposes for which school funds are raised and the amount for each purpose the past year follows:

County general.....	$272,227.13
County high school....	170,141.95
High school special ..	270,881.86
High school bond.....	70,317.52

GROWERS TO BE PAID FOR RAILROAD LOSSES

Fruit growers of Northern California who suffered losses of millions of dollars due to the car shortage and the shopmen's strike last year are to be reimbursed at least in part, by the railroads.

This announcement was made by W. F. Whiteman, freight claim agent of the Western Pacific, who has just returned from Chicago, where representatives of the railroads decided to make good the losses of the shippers by pooling the responsibility.

The eastern roads represented in the American Railway Association, according to Whiteman, at first favored fighting the claims of the shippers, allowing the matter to go to the courts with the prospects of a legal battle drawn out over several years.

Whiteman and other western railroad men however, counseled settlement, knowing the plight of California shippers as a result of the traffic breakdown of last year.

Between $10,000,000 and $12,000,000 in damage claims for losses on freight in transit last year have been filed by California shippers, Whiteman estimates.

CANNERS AND GROWERS FIX THE PRICE OF PEARS

After an all day session Tuesday at their offices at 210 Pine street, San Francisco, the Board of Directors of the Pear Growers' Association finally agreed with the canners upon the price for pears this year. The price will be $35 for No. 1 and $25 for No. 2. The No. 1 is to be three-eighths inches or better; the No. 2 must be two and a quarter inches with two perfect halves or two and three-eighths with one perfect half.

It is estimated that the crop to be canned will be 14,000 tons, of which 12,000 tons will be No. 1.

DEFICIT APPEARS TO BE ABOUT $7500

At an informal meeting of the executive committee of the Mission centennial celebration, Jack N. Reid, director, rendered his report and while some salvage is yet to be reported, the deficit of the celebration appears to be about $7500. A general subscription list will be circulated to get voluntary donations to help the underwriters pay the loss.

Several members of the executive committee are out of town but upon their return another meeting will be held and a complete record of receipts and expenditures will be given the public.

GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE NOW A CERTAINTY

That the War Department has no objection to the construction of a bridge across the Golden Gate is the word brought to San Francisco by J. B. Strauss, head of the Strauss Bridge Company of Chicago, the firm which has drawn up plans for a $20,000,000 span which is proposed to furnish a main outlet for San Francisco and link the city with Marin county.

"I do not know how it has happened that there is an impression that the War Department would prevent the construction of a bridge at the Golden Gate," said Strauss.

"In my talks with the War Department officials, both local and at Washington, it developed that there was no objection to the bridge provided that navigation laws were complied with.

"Great progress has been made in every way and we feel certain the bridge will go through.

"The counties interested are convinced that it will be a good proposition and that they will be paying themselves dividends out of the returns of a Golden Gate bridge.

"We have not encountered any opposition and the War Department can not possibly object. It is bound to be a tremendous asset to San Francisco. The building of the span according to Strauss, is a certainty.

GRAVENSTEIN APPLE DAY

Gravenstein apples are bigger, better and brighter in abundance, color and size this year than they have been since the old Sebastopol apple shows in 1910 and 1915. Even the prices are better. It is thought that the Sebastopol Apple Growers' Union will receive about $1.25 per packed box.

The splendid size and color of this year's crop is excellent for showing purposes and it is too bad that a larger, four or five day, apple show is not going to be held so as to enable distant people to see the apples. On August 11, first annual Gravenstein Apple Day, there will be an apple display tent with a solid block of the beautiful fruit, over 150 boxes. This does not sound like a great deal but the magnanimous beauty of such a large amount of apples is a marvelous sight and will be exceptional this year.

The abundance of this year's crop is amazing. Especially to those who know little or nothing about the apple industry. Many of the orchards are almost impassable due to the limbs which are laden with fruit and pulled down to the ground. Other orchards resemble small lumber yards on account of the great number of props.

The 13 apple packing plants, including 11 Sebastopol Apple Growers' Union plants, Dunbar and Hansen and Garcia and Maggini, will be rushed in an attempt to handle the apples.

Three years ago, in 1920, there were 500,000 packed boxes of Gravensteins. This year it has been estimated that there will be about 1250 carloads of packed boxes of Gravensteins, nearly 800,000 boxes, or an increase of 300,000 boxes in three years.

This increase is due to new orchards which have come into bearing and which will continue to come into bearing for several years. The good Gravenstein land is nearly occupied. There is only a limited amount of this land in the foothills of Sonoma county. Sebastopol is the center of this land and recently one orchard

CHAMPLIN SAVED BOY ON FIRE

Stanley McGill Painfully Burned by Gasoline Igniting; Flames Extinguished by Daring Man.

The fortunate arrival of Charles C. Champlin yesterday morning saved Stanley McGill from possibly fatal injuries, McGill having caught fire while under Champlin's car drawing off some gasoline. Champlin went out to the Maxwell place where McGill is operating the Champlin tractor and McGill asked permission to draw off a little gasoline to prime the tractor. He got under the car and is thought to have used the wrong end of a match to start the drain.

At any rate, Champlin, returning from a chat with Miss Maxwell, discovered McGill scrambling out from under the car, his clothes blazing. With rare presence of mind Champlin stopped the boy, threw him into the dirt and smothered the flames. McGill, however, suffered a number of painful burns on his shoulders and arms. He is under the care of Dr. S. Boelsen.

was sold for $2000 an acre without any improvements, except a fence around the place.

The Gravenstein is known the world over and it is only grown successfully and in large quantities no other place in the world but in Sebastopol; this little city is rapidly becoming widely known. Sebastopol is holding its first annual Gravenstein Apple Day and dedication of the new building of the Chamber of Commerce on August 11, 1923.

GIRLS MAKE RECORD AT PACKING HOUSE

Vineburg is a bee hive of industry these days with fruit packers working early and late to get Sonoma Valley apples and pears started on their way to the markets.

Many girls are employed in wrapping and packing the fruit under the capable direction of Miss Alexander, formerly an employee of the State Farm for Women at Buena Vista. Miss Alexander is now employed by the Sonoma Valley Apple Growers' Association.

Girls doing piece work make over $6.00 per day by rapid work and long hours. These are busy harvest days both in the orchards and at the packing houses.
